

Duties of a Director for the Brentwood Soccer Club

- Managing the business and affairs of the Club (shared with elected Officers)
- Obtain the team's input on issues and problems
- Bring issues and problems to the attention of the Board, Officers, or Committees for consideration and action.
- Balance "team" interest with the "big picture" of the Club, make sound business decisions
- Understand the Vision, Mission, Strategies and Objectives of the Club and share them with their team.
- Communicate information on the Club's actions (to include the reasons) to their teams.
- Understand the Constitution, By-Laws, and General Rules of the Club, insure that their teams operates in accordance with these policies and procedures.
- Serve as a communication channel between the Club and the team.
- Serve as a facilitator and coordinator of actions
- Approve the Club's budget and manage its property
- Attending Board of Director meetings and if unable to attend arrange for their team to be represented by an Alternate Director.
- Understand the roles and responsibilities of each official position and help identify candidates for these positions.
- Understand the roles and responsibilities of each committee and help identify people that might be assets serving of these committees.